

NW Tour & Trail present the very 1st annual Scaredy Cat Dualsport Ride!

All skill level of riders will enjoy this ride! It is an easy, dualsport ride for big bikes, small bikes, sidecars, and newbies with an adventure-touring theme. We like to ride out in our forests and want to show everyone the spectacular views and beauty in the Detroit Lake area.

Sunday, August 21, 2005. Signup opens at 7AM and first rider out at 8AM.

The start/finish is at the Swiss Village Restaurant in Mehama, Oregon, about 22 miles East of Interstate 5 on Hwy 22. The course will meander to Detroit Lake area (just East of Salem) and back. Cost is only $20 per pre-entry and $25 the day of the event (post entry).

The main, easy course is approximately 80+ miles long. There are extra options for longer, more enjoyable routes also. This will not be your typical dualsport event with just a rollchart. Map reading skills will also benefit you in the long run and get you to the checkpoint options better. You will have various options for ways to get you through the forest utilizing rollcharts. Think of this as an adventure!

Also:

- We will have some novel checkpoints that will make you think and a scavenger-hunt theme.
- A lowball hand could also make a top-five finish.
- A percentage of the overall money will be awarded as a cash prize! All riders must have a minimum 3" tall rider number [on the front of the bike] that will be assigned. Check our website or call to verify your assigned rider number.
